

COLLEGE OF THE SEQUOIAS

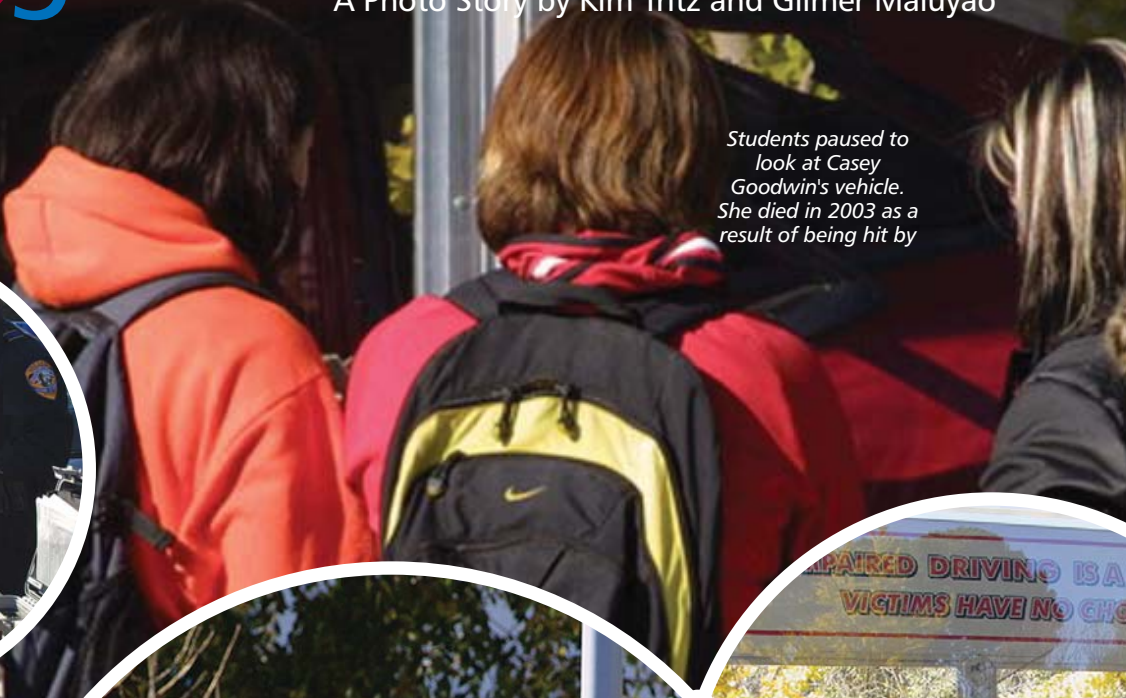

Getting Out the Word

A Photo Story by Kim Tritz and Gilmer Maluyao

Members of the Visalia Police Department were on hand to demonstrate breathalyzer tests.

Students paused to look at Casey Goodwin's vehicle. She died in 2003 as a result of being hit by

The late Casey Goodwin's vehicle, used to show the damaging and deadly effect of DUI.

Results of the breathalyzer test.

Members of the DA's Victim's Bureau were present to hand out materials and answer questions about their services.

A COS Student intently looking at a MADD exhibit

Phil Cline speaking with a student.

Editor's Note:
Kim Tritz and Gilmer Maluyao serve as Graphics Specialists for the Office of the Tulare County District Attorney. They are responsible for design and production of various visual communication materials of the office and its various programs.

Phil Cline is proud to announce a new anti-DUI program within the Tulare County District Attorney's Office. The prosecution program, provided through a grant by the Office of Traffic Safety in California, aims to reduce the rate of injuries and death through community awareness, specialized investigation and prosecution.

The event was attended by various members of the DA's Office, Law Enforcement Agencies and the community, including Lynne Goodwin who lost two of her children in automobile accidents over the past two years, one to a drunk driver. The DA's Victim-Witness Assistance Bureau, Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD), Friday Night Live, California Highway Patrol and the Visalia Police Department were all present to interact with the community and provide further information on their role in preventing DUI activity.

Members of the California Highway Patrol were also present to

Friday Night Live gave visitors the opportunity to wear DUI goggles which simulate impaired vision.

Students linger as Casey Goodwin's portrait looms in the background.

Jeff Seaward stands by Lynne Goodwin

Jeff Seaward conducting the COS choir.

Bill Yoshimoto, as the Master of Ceremony.

Standing are representatives from the Porterville PD, Visalia PD, Dinuba PD, Tulare County Sheriff's Office, California Highway Patrol, including Chief Silver Rodriguez of Porterville PD, Assistant Chief Dennis Swiney of Visalia PD, and Area CHP Commander Captain Brian Smith.

Phyllis Webster of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD)